How Towns Grow in the West. It seems that very far out west there was atribe of Indians who lived in a very secluded vast wilderness, where they had owed for their lodges a long time. One fine morning they all started off on a horse stealing eleursion, and did not return for many days. When they did, they found a first class hotel with nigger waiters and gongs, wine cart and Johannisberg, on the spot where their council lodge had been, and a town scattered all around it, with lots at two hundred dollars a foot. Enterprising people, this!

WALUABLE FARM FOR SALE !!- The undersigned, for the purpose of partition, oder for sale their farm called "CARTER'S GREEN" containing six hundred and seventy five ACRES, situated in the upper end of the county of Prince William, immediately on the road leading from Aldie to Gainesville, and about equidistant from those places, or about 61 miles from each. This farm is divided into nine fields, besides a meadow and two or three lots. It is beautifully laid off, (the field's being nearly all square.) the timber is of the best quality, well dispersed over the farm and abundant for all purposes. The whole is well watered, there being no difficulty in watering stock from every field in the driest seasons. highly fertile, (being mostly chocolate) and well adapted, to wheat, corn and grass. Indeed the facility with which the fields run into blue grass, after cropping, renders it one of the finest grazing farms to be found within tweety miles

The fencing is all in good order, and the entire farm, in a high state of cultivation. It can winter and graze well, and with ease 75 or 80 Cattle of good size, and with very little expenditure for fertilizers-twelve or fifteen hundred bushels of wheat can be raised thereon annually. The present crop of fallow wheat on 8 60 a field of about fifty acres, presents a tarr per acre; the number of Beef Cattle at present grazing on the farm is about 70 and there are one or more fine grass fields scarcely touched sufficient in number. The shelters for stock and farming implements &c., are perhaps superior to those to be found on any farm within ten miles. In fine, the undersigned, verily consider 'Carter's Green" one of the best and most desirable farms to be found in this or any of the adjoining counties. It is nearly a square; is beautifully undulating; easy to cultivate; convenient to market, and in a neighborhood, where the society is refined, hospitable and moral.

TERMS will be easy, and for a considerable portion of the purchase money a very liberal credit will be given, if desired. J. T. Carter, who resides on the premises, will take pleasure in showing them to any one who may wish to view them, or letters addressed to either of the undersigned will be responded to.
